

Public Education in DC: At a Fork in the Road, # 2

21st Century School Fund; DCVOICE; Empower DC; SHAPPE; and WeActRadio.com

invite citizens, parents, educators, and students to our second community discussion.

Thursday, May 3, 2012

5:30 PM-8PM

Dorothy Height/Benning Neighborhood Library

3935 Benning Rd. N.E. Washington, DC 20019

1/3 mile from the Benning Ave. Metro- Blue Line. Parking available at the East River Park Shopping Center, directly behind the new library.

The Mayor and Chancellor announced school closings: But what do parents and citizens say? What's the PUBLIC's vision for public education in DC?

Discussion Topics:

- Putting parents and community back in public education decisions
- Neighborhood schools of right: a functional system of schools
- Staff turnover: What happens when good teachers and principals leave?
- Comprehensive community schools and genuine achievement

Parents from Bruce-Monroe @ Park View Elementary

Please help spread the word about this important meeting!! Forward and print this flyer.
For more information call Nancy at 202-745-3745 ext.15 or email at nhuvendick@21csf.org